

WELCOMING YOU TO CAMPUS SAFELY
Here at Newcastle College we are doing everything we can to ensure you stay safe on our campus.

Here's what learning will look like with a full opening of campus.

PRESENT AND IN-PERSON MODEL

FOR YOUR SAFETY

CAMPUS

The following safety measures could be put in place if necessary:

- Keep left signage
- Masks on the move
- Screens and barriers
- Hand sanitising stations
- Targeted cleaning across campus facilities

CATERING AND SOCIAL SPACES

The following safety measures could be put in place if necessary:

- Keep left signage
- Masks on the move

STUDENT LIFE AND COMMUNITY

- Fitness and sports facilities will open in line with Government guidance
 - Online and on-campus services including student support, security, learning mentors, safeguarding team, additional learning support (literacy and numeracy) and the work experience team
 - A personal tutor for academic support
- Online and in person enrichment opportunities including volunteering, work experience, employer engagement and fund-raising opportunities

EXPERIENCE

- Contact with tutors and support staff
- Exceptional levels of one to one support
- New and returning students' induction with a programme of activities

LEARNING

- On-campus teaching and assessment
- Access to exceptional equipment / workspaces based on curriculum need

LIBRARY*

The following safety measures could be put in place if necessary:

- Hand sanitising stations throughout the Library
- Keep left signage
- Masks on the move
- Social distancing markers in place
- Barriers and screens
- Book return available via the external book drop facility or Library drop in
- Area available to return physical library resources used during Library browsing session

IT ACCESS

- Access an extensive range of PCs and laptops
- Access to industry specialist software
- Campus wi-fi access

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- Dedicated visa support from our International Office
- Referral to safe approved accommodation providers in Newcastle City Centre
- Access to our International Social Programme in line with Government guidelines

STAYING SAFE AS YOU STUDY

Here at Newcastle College we can't wait to welcome you back to campus. We have been working hard to ensure the campus is a safe and secure environment for all, supporting as you study on campus and online.

Should public health guidance require a partial lockdown, here's what you can typically expect if your studies are split between online and on campus.

HYBRID MODEL

LEARNING

- Online and on-campus teaching and assessment
- Access to exceptional equipment/workspaces based on your course

CAMPUS

- A blend of online and on-campus services including safe access to open learning spaces
- Measures in place to ensure campus safety in line with Government guidance
- Social spaces will be open in line with campus safety measures and Government guidance

STUDENT LIFE AND COMMUNITY

- A personal tutor for academic support
- Online and in-person enrichment opportunities including volunteering, work experience, employer engagement and fundraising opportunities

EXPERIENCE

- Exceptional levels of one to one support
- New and returning students' induction with a hybrid programme of activities

LIBRARY*

- Hand sanitising stations throughout the Library
 - Keep left signage
 - Masks on the move
- Social distancing markers in place
 - Barriers and screens
- Book return available via the external book drop facility or Library drop in
 - Area available to return physical library resources used during Library browsing session.

STUDENT SUPPORT

- Online and on-campus services including student support, security, learning mentors, safeguarding team, additional learning support (literacy and numeracy) and the work experience team

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- Access to our International Social Programme in line with Government guidelines
 - Referral to safe approved accommodation providers in Newcastle City Centre
- Dedicated visa support from our International Office

SUPPORTING YOUR OFF-CAMPUS STUDIES
Here at Newcastle College we are doing everything we can to ensure you stay safe and feel supported as you study online.

Your safety is very important to us. Should public health guidance require a full lockdown, here's what you can typically expect if all your studies are online.

ONLINE MODEL

LEARNING

- All teaching and learning online
- Access to resources online
- Access to Library resources online

CAMPUS

- Access to campus will be available for limited numbers of students in line with government guidance

STUDENT LIFE AND COMMUNITY

- Online and on-campus services including student support
- A personal tutor for academic support

STUDENT SUPPORT

- Online award-winning student support through Student Services
- Online student wellbeing support

EXPERIENCE

- Exceptional levels of one-to-one support
 - Contact with tutors and support staff
- Online enrichment opportunities including volunteering, work experience, employer engagement and fundraising opportunities

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- Referral to safe approved accommodation providers in Newcastle City Centre
- Dedicated visa support from our International Office